

Sale Name: May Mini-Premier Gun Auction!

LOT 264 - Rare & Desirable H.E. DIMICK St. Louis Perc. Rifle

Estimate. $2,500-$4,500

Description

40 cal. w/30" oct. bbl. & rounded at the muzzle for ball starter. The top flat is marked H.E. DIMICK ST. LOUIS, gun has simple lollipop style folding rear sight & a hooded front w/a fine bead. Gun is a dbl keyed walnut half stock w/iron butt plate & trigger guard., also features dbl. set triggers & patch box, brown to grey patina & a fair bore w/decent rifling remaining.

Horris E Dimick was a prominent St Louis Gunsmith & Firearms Dealer, well known for his high-quality percussion Plains rifles. Dimick also became nationally famous for providing rifles to elite Sharp Shooters of the 66th Illinois Volunteer Infantry.

Quantity: 1

<https://bid.kramersales.com/>